

SCHOOL NOTES.

By Supt. Notson.
On the 9th inst. I visited the school at Hardman. Prof. Copeland and Misses Winifred and Margaret Osten have the work well in hand and the pupils are making good progress. I noted some excellent work in the Palmer method of writing. A gymnasium has been fitted up in the room not used for school work. It is quite popular and the results are very gratifying.

In District NO. 2 Miss Mabel Rankin is the teacher. Eleven pupils were present. A new International dictionary has been added to the equipment. There is a jacket around the stove. Several of the pupils ride to school and a comfortable barn will be erected for the horses.

Mrs. Jesse M. Kelley teaches in District No. 24. This school has several maps and an International dictionary. A new stove and new window shades have been provided recently. The windows are provided with window boards. The pupils are few in number, but all take a lively interest in their work.

The school in District No. 18 is one of the smallest in the county. Only three pupils were present. Mrs. Edna White is the teacher. A box social was held recently at which $52.80 was taken in. This will be used in purchasing maps, a globe, and other needed equipment. The foundation has been recently fixed so as to exclude the winds from under the floor. I noted that a can of water is kept on the stove to insure some moisture in the room.

Mr. Earl Hamman teaches in District No. 27. A new organ has been purchased for the school. The desks are of the adjustable type. Mr. Hamman has constructed a sandtable, which is used by the pupils to good advantage. A new fuel house has been built recently. A live literary society meets at the school house every Saturday night.

Miss Alice Arnold is the teacher in District No. 20. The school room is tastefully decorated in holiday style. There are good window boards also good shades and neat sash curtains. There are some good maps and an International dictionary.

The John Deere Plow Company have informed me that they have sent to each school clerk a little book entitled "Soil Culture". It is intended for the school and for the clerk individually. It is an interesting little book, and I hope the clerk will see that the school library is enriched by it.
